Nearly twenty-five thousand people are duties in Harlem Police Court, and the white-baired Solon had but "three minntes to call his own.

In respond to the reporter's query Judge Morray said:

"Of course, the action of Judge Power's County Committee last night in expelling me was arbitrary and with out precedent in fact, or warranty in the law of the organi-

"As to last night's action: There was crowd of men, young men, whom I never saw before, gathered from the four winds of heaven'evidently to expel me. Yet Power could muster but 120 votes against me. My votes came from the Fourth Senator Alegars's District, the Eighteenth Gucart needs to more the Tourth Senator Alegars's District, the Eighteenth Gucart needs on liaceland and the gedding is in fine fettle. It was a majority, while the Sixteenth, in which live Power Commingham. Judge Fitzgerald 1, 300 majority, while the Sixteenth, in which live Power Commingham. Judge Lachman, Major Duffy and Judge Fitzgerald himself, gave 300 against him.

"The 120 votes were from the 'paper' districts. My support came from our strongholds."

"What is your plan of campaign?" asked the reporter.

"It is plain," replied Justice Murray, smiling. "Our primaries are provided for by law and precedent. I was as firmly by law and precedent. I was as firmly send precedent. I was as firmly send precedent.

"What is your plan of campaign T and the reporter.

"It is plain," replied Justice Murray, and with that little black lump, Barnes on let be committee of the County Committee as any Congression or Assemblyman was ever elected. I propose to leave the fight to the organization of the Seventeenth District. That organization alone can decide whether I shall or shall not represent the district in the general organization."

"Last night you offered to go before a committee of lower's own selection and in committee of lower's own selection and in the committee of lower's own strict privacy name the man who paid $5,000 to Power and Cunningham for the appointment of a friend to a Civil District Court clerkship, and to name your authority. You were denied that opportunity. Will you name to the public through The Eventson Worner those persons?"

You were denied that opportunities are to the public through The Eversion name to the public through The Eversion Would be seen that would be manifestly improper. Whether I ever divulge those things will decend on my district organization and my informant himself. It is enough that I implicitly believe my informant."

At the County Committee meeting in Cooper Union last night there was a stormy seem. The Investigating Committee reported that Judge Murray had failed to substantiate the ser-ous charges arginant several members of the Committee, and that he was a bad man and ought to be expelled from the organization.

a bad man and ought to be expelled from the organizatior.

There were howis and catcalls by the thirty-two members who stood by Murray and shouls for vengeance from the Power party, and the report was adopted and a resolution by Otto Horwitz, expelling Judge Murray, passed amid much confusion, the Committee refusing to insten to Judge Murray's proposition that a small committee be named on the spot to go into a private room and listen to the full story of corrupt machines of Power, Cunningham and William P. Mitchell.
